PERRY & STEVENS

BY TELEGRAPH
TO THE
NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29, 1858.

Senator Sumner writes from Boston that his health has so much improved that he will be here in time to vote upon the army bill.

The Douglas Democracy are exerting themselves to retrieve their losses and strengthen their position. The States which have become the Douglas organ, has a long and significant article on Le Compton this evening. It declares that no Democratic Senator or Member of Congress from a Northern State could face his constituents if he were to vote for its acceptance. It also says that it will drive out of Congress the Northern Democratic Senators and Representatives who would stand by the South in bringing in Arizona as a Slave State, or in securing to us Cuba, Nicaragua or Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.

Sig. Molina, minister of Costa Rica, has been officially advised of the late treaty between that government and Nicaragua, and as it settles to a certain extent the boundary for which Escazante was especially dispatched to Washington, he will soon return to Costa Rica.

A private letter from a high functionary of Nicaragua, received at Washington, states that the feeling now existing between Nicaraguans and Costa Ricans is of the most friendly character.

Two hundred thousand dollars in treasury notes were to day paid to mail contractors William Walker in his speech at Mobile said:

"In the month of October a confidential friend of his had an interview with a member of the Cabinet, who said the President opposed the Nicaragua enterprise. The member recommended the Walkerites to enter into a treaty with Gen. Comanfort, and become allies with Mexico, and then bring about a war between Spain and Mexico, and seize Cuba. The Walkerites repudiated the proposition."

Influenza, and Common Cold.

Like thieves in the silence of the night, have carried many to the silent grave. They are caused by a sudden check of perspiration, by which the stomach is rendered inactive, and the lungs become loaded with corrupted matter, which enters the blood, and disease is the result. For all colds, coughs, and chills, use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They cleanse the blood, and remove all the poisons from the system, and restore the system to its normal state. They are sold by all druggists.

Great Female Medicine.

Females who value health should never be without these Pills. It has been admitted by a number of physicians, that females cannot too highly value them. They have given health and spirits to hundreds of females who without them would have been in their graves. They purify the blood, remove obstructions, and give the skin a beautiful, clear, healthy, and glowing appearance. A box of these Pills is a great and sure companion at certain periods. From one to three should be taken every day until relief is obtained. A few doses occasionally, when well, will keep the system in a healthy condition.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all druggists.

NEW THIS MORNING.

Newport, Jan. 19, 1858.

From the Providence Daily Tribune.

Don Juan's Rose Compound—Don Juan's Rose Compound for the hair, is unequalled for cleaning the human head, giving the hair a rich, silky and lustrous appearance; restoring the hair, preventing its falling out, and curing scalp, and in fact, giving to the whole head those natural beauties which are the delight of the eye and the pleasure of youth, and the joy of old age. Sole proprietor, John O. Hazard, No. 133 Broad street, Providence.

CAUTION TO LADIES.—A lady residing in Stamford, Conn., was very severely burned on Friday evening last. She had been applying to her hair a mixture of castor oil and alcohol, and approaching too near a lighted lamp her head became enveloped in a blaze, and the flame was not extinguished until the lady was severely burned that she is in a critical condition. —Woonsocket Patriot, Oct. 24th.

Don Juan's Rose Compound is the only safe, elegant and truly efficacious Hair Preparation sold, and is winning "golden opinions from all classes of people." (See pamphlet.) It is warranted to contain no alcohol, grease, sugar of lead or any sulphur; and will restore the hair in every instance where restoration is possible by any means, and preserve it in a healthy, luxuriant condition. In bottles at 25 cents, 50 cents and 75 cents. Who, then, will use inflammable, greasy and poisonous compounds, when the real desideratum can be procured at so small an expense?

JOHN O. HAZARD, Druggist, 133 Broad street, Providence, sole proprietor.

HAZARD & CASWELL, Agents for Newport. Also for sale by R. J. TAYLOR, 116

ALPINE HAIR BALM.

It keeps the hair from falling off.

Mr. Paine presented the petition of Wm. A. Robinson and others for amendment of Charter of the Commercial Mutual Insurance Company. Referred to the Committee on Corporations.

The report of the Committee appointed to erect a Fire-Proof building for records in the county of Washington, was read and placed on file.

Resolution appropriating $150 to pay balance of expenses in erecting the above building, was passed in concurrence.

On motion of Mr. Manchester, His Excellency the Governor and the Hon. Senate were invited to join the House in Grand Committee for the purpose of electing an Attorney General and Justices of the Peace and Notaries Public.

The invitation was accepted, and the two Houses joined.

IN GRAND COMMITTEE.

The Committee was called to order, and the object of the session stated by His Excellency Governor Dyer. He called for nominations for Attorney General.

Mr. Manchester, of Portsmouth, nominated Mr. Jerome B. Kimball, of Providence.

Mr. Alfred Anthony, of Johnston, nominated Mr. Christopher Robinson, of Cumberland. No other nomination was made, and a ballot was ordered, which resulted as follows:

Whole number of ballots	67
Necessary for a choice	44
Mr. Jerome B. Kimball had	63
Mr. Christopher Robinson had	23
Mr. Walter S. Burges had	1
Mr. Samuel Curry had	1
Mr. Jerome B. Kimball was declared to have been elected.

Mr. Alfred Anthony expressed himself more than satisfied with the result; his object in making a nomination had been to ascertain the number of Douglas men.

Mr. Sheffield inquired how the gentleman could ascertain the numerical strength of the friends of Mr. Douglas from the vote for Attorney General.

Mr. Anthony replied, by looking at the number of votes given for the Candidates. (Laughter.)

The following Notaries Public were nominated and elected:

Newport County—Benjamin Marsh, 2d, Francis B. Peckham, Jr.

Providence County—James Sturges Pease, Geo. Adams, Charles H. Pope, Alexander T. Britton, Walter E. Gardner, Edward Hodgkins.

The Grand Committee refused to elect Peter H. Brown, he being cashier of a bank.

The following Justices of the Peace were nominated and elected:

James Sturges Pease, Alexander T. Britton, of Providence; John Horswell, of North Providence; Edwin W. Mowry, Edward Hodgkins, Joseph W. Tillingham, Smithfield.

HOUSE.

On motion of Mr. Manchester, Messrs. Manchester, Van Zandt and Clarke were appointed a committee on the part of the House to report some plan for the enforcement of public acts.

Mr. Clarke offered a resolution, authorizing the Select Committee on the memorial of Charles T. Hazard to send for persons and papers, and also to enquire into the equity jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and directing the Committee to report as soon as practicable what legislation is necessary.

On motion of Mr. Van Zandt, Wednesday next was assigned for its further consideration.

TESTIMONY OF A LADY OVER 60 YEARS OF AGE.

Mr. Mason, Sir—I write to inform you how pleased I am with your Alpine Hair Balm. My hair has been gray for a number of years, and I have been obliged to wear a front piece and cap; but have always found a difficulty when having a bonnet on to keep the front piece from working back and showing the white hair. Finally I concluded I would try your Alpine Hair Balm; I used one bottle only and my hair has come back to its natural color, which was brown. My hair is now perfectly free from dandruff and is soft and easy.

Very respectfully,
SARAH LYON.

INVIGORATE THE LIVER.—It is a most undoubted fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years' practice to find what particular organ, when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease is a preventive of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last but far from least we mention consumption; for our experience is that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver than from all other causes put together.

Taking this to be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventive. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements, it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all diseases of the stomach or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest and most efficacious remedy known. —Princeton Press.

Testimony in favor of Prof. O. J. WOOD'S Hair Restorative Voluntary Certificates, of which one will be published every week.

No. 19.

MILFORD, Worcester Co., Mass. Nov. 13, 1854.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir—I take pleasure in bearing voluntary testimony, to the magic effects of your Hair Restorative. I have been falling off, until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement, I was induced to give your article a trial; and to my utter astonishment, I found after a few applications that my hair became firmly set, and assumed a very glossy and beautiful appearance; and by the time I had used a quart bottle, my bald head was covered over with a young and vigorous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

Yours truly,
HENRY GOODRICH.

Terrible Explosion and Sinking of the Steamer Fanny Fern—Fifteen Lives Lost.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 28, 1858.

The steamer Fanny Fern, bound to St. Louis from Pittsburgh, with 400 tons of produce, fifteen cabin and twenty deck passengers, exploded her boiler at 2 o'clock this afternoon, eighteen miles below this city. Fifteen lives are reported to be lost, including Captain Woodward, several deck hands and firemen and three ladies. The boat took fire, burned to the water's edge, and then sank. The clerk, Messrs. Dume and Rogers, were scalded, the former badly and the latter slightly. The Ohio and Mississippi train brought up thirty of the sufferers fifteen of whom were wounded. The pilot, engineer and mate were saved.

Later from Havana.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 28, 1858.

The Walash was at Key West, and her officers and men were well. Nineteen of her men, whose time had expired, came passengers by the Isabel.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

January Session.

PRIMA, Jan. 28.

SENATE.

The Senate was called to order by His Excellency the Governor, a quorum being present.

Mr. Randall, from Warren, presented the key to the desk of the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, (who was absent) whereupon he was instructed to present the same to Mr. Alfred Anthony, a member of the said Committee, and he, on motion of His Honor Lieut. Gov. Turner, was instructed to examine the papers in said desk, and, finding any prepared for presentation, to present the same to the Senate.

Mr. Picher, from East Greenwich, presented the following petition, which was read and referred to the Select Committee to which was referred a petition previously presented from the same Society:

To the Honorable General Assembly, January Session.

The Rhode Island Society for the Encouragement of Domestic Industry, by their Standing Committee.

Respectfully represent that there has been a bill introduced into the House of Representatives of the United States in Congress, calling for the donating to the several States and Territories of the United States a portion of the public lands, for the establishment of a college in each State for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts.

They therefore pray that the delegation of this State in Congress may be requested to use their influence for the passage of said bill into an act of Congress.

ELISIA DYER, President.

W. R. STAPLES, Secretary.

Mr. Rodman, from South Kingstown, called up the report of the Committee on State Property, in relation to the erection of the Record Building in Washington county, and on his motion a resolution was passed and, with the report, ordered to be communicated to the House, making a further appropriation of $150 to complete the payment of the same.

His Excellency the Governor presented a communication from E. C. Mauran, Adjutant General, proposing an alteration in sections 2, 3 and 3, chapter 337 of the Revised Statutes, changing the time for making the returns by the militia of the State, which was read and with the accompanying act, referred to the Committee on the Militia.

A resolution accepting the resignation of the Attorney General, was received from the House and concurred in.

Mr. Fairbrother, for the Committee on Corporations, reported adversely on the petition of B. B. Knight and others for an act to incorporate the Providence Steam Flour Mills; whereupon the petitioners had leave to withdraw.

Mr. Gallup, of Cranston, presented the following, which was read and passed, and the blank filled with the names of the Senator from Cranston, Mr. Albert S. Gallup, and the Secretary of State, Mr. John R. Bartlett:

Resolved, That the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars be appropriated towards defraying the expense of introducing fish into the fresh water ponds and streams in the State, and that and be a committee with powers to carry this resolution into effect, and to draw on the General Treasurer for the amount appropriated.

The Senate having accepted an invitation from the House, then proceeded to join that body in Grand Committee—(for proceedings of which, see House Report).

Mr. Bradley presented the remonstrance of Wm. E. Richmond, Adah Sackett and Daniel Field against continuance of their petition for amendment of Charter of city of Providence, with an order of notice.

They deny that the City Council of the city of Providence can be deemed a party to the measure they ask, or that there can be any adverse interest which should be consulted by postponement of action upon the petition of citizens.

The petition was referred to a select Committee, which is not yet announced.

Petition of Emanuel and Fanny King for leave to adopt a child, was also taken up.

Mr. Bradley presented a petition from the heirs of the late John R. King, for leave to adopt a child, which was referred to the Committee on Real Estate.

SECRET HISTORY OF THE PRESIDENT'S APOCALYPSE.—The secret history of Gov. Wise's defection from the administration is thus given by the Washington Republic, with substantial accuracy we have no doubt:

"The President started out with the policy of securing to the people of Kansas a fair vote upon their constitution. He sent Gov. Walker to Kansas to execute their policy. For a while he stood firm, and wrote a letter to Gov. Walker (not yet published, but shown by Gov. W. to many persons) assuring him of the support of the administration. 'Let Georgia and Alabama and Mississippi howl,' said the President in this letter, 'I will stand by you.' That the President used substantially this language, is a well authenticated fact. In the end, the 'howling' became so terrific, that Gov. Buchanan was frightened out of his wits, changed his policy, and abandoned Gov. Walker.

Before he changed his policy, he had arranged with Gov. Wise to make a division against the free-ers in Virginia. Gov. Wise, and the Richmond Engineer, under Gov. Wise's influence, were to support the administration programme in Kansas; and the administration were to support Gov. Wise for the United States Senatorship against Mr. Hunter. Gov. Wise arrived here to complete and perfect these arrangements, on the very day that the Union announced the President's submission to the nullifiers. Gov. Wise went home, and has been since nursing the wrath which breaks out in his letter to Tammany Hall. Not only was his scheme of defeating Mr. Hunter blown up, but he himself has been drawn into commitments upon the Kansas question which destroys his democratic standing, disabed as he is from making any effective fight by the treachery of the President. Governor Wise is a betrayed man, and, as a democratic politician, ruined. If he does not compass some 'revenger' even if 'victor' be unobtainable, it will prove that age has wonderfully softened his temper.

NEWSPAPER BLANKETS.—I have recently heard much about the value of newspapers as a substitute for blankets; and have considered the statements to be apocryphal. But last evening I was induced to make the experiment.—I took four full-sized newspapers, and pasted them together at the edges, making one large sheet of the size of a blanket. I then covered three blankets from my bed, and placed the newspaper sheet between the one remaining blanket and the counterpane. The result was a comfortable night's sleep, without any feelings of cold.

I pledge my word to you, gentlemen, that this is literally true; and my object in making it is, that through the medium of your paper, the fact may be generally circulated—for it is a trifling matter to the poor of our city to know that for an outlay of a few pennies, they can supply themselves with comfortable bed-covering through the approaching winter.—Cor. N. Y. Eve. Post.

We think the newspapers must have contained a great deal of spicy matter [Hd.]

FUGITIVE TRAGEDY.—A few days since Mr. C. A. Vancleave, a wealthy farmer of Marion county, corrected a negro woman for some offense. The husband of the slave, who was also owned by Vancleave, hearing of it, on Thursday addressed his master in an impudent manner concerning it, and finally raised an axe, threatening to split his head open. Vancleave sent for his son Henry, and Daniel Thompson, a neighbor, to assist him in stripping the black rascal for his misconduct. They came, and the negro was tied up, but afterward noticed so as to take his coat off. The moment he was at liberty, he quickly drew a huge butcher's knife from his bosom, and with a savage yell, rushed upon his young master Henry, and plunged it to the hilt in his breast. He then turned upon Thompson, and inflicted a terrible stab in his right side. After having thus satisfied his deep vengeance in blood, he was secured without resistance and lodged in the County Jail at Lebanon. Henry Vancleave expired in a few minutes after the blow, and Thompson is in a critical condition from his wound. The murdered man leaves a young wife and child to lament his untimely death. When the facts became known in Lebanon, it was with great difficulty that the calm and law-abiding citizens could restrain the populace from lynching the murderer upon the spot.

WHAT LITTLE GIRLS CAN DO.—In the town of Newburyport, Massachusetts, was formed a Juvenile Temperance Society.

One evening some little members of it going home, when they saw a poor intoxicated man leaning against a post.

One dear girl went up to him and said, "Please sir, will you sign the pledge?"

"I haven't got it, or I would," replied the conscience-stricken man.

"I have it here, sir," remarked the polite child, as she drew a blank pledge from her pocket, "and," she added, speaking to her companions, "let us sing."

So they formed a ring round the drunkard and commenced with—

"The drink that's in the deardard's cup Is not the drink for me."

So sweetly did they carol this simple rhyme, that the poor man began to cough and "sing again," the girls, sing again."

They sang again. Then the little maiden pressed him to sign the pledge.

"I've no ink and no desk."

The hat did make the drunk and that drunkard reformed by a child is an eminent lecturer on Temperance.

SPARE MOMENTS.—As all bonnets take it is admitted, five minutes to put on, and as in practice it is found that most of them require to be silyerably more than that, these "spare moments" will do well to follow the example of the Chancellor D. Apuleia, who, finding that his wife always kept him waiting a quarter of an hour after he had called, said to her, "I will wait for you four quarters of an hour."

(Notes and Queries.)

LITERARY.

The 1th No. of the Atlantic Monthly for February 1858, has been lying on our table for several days. From the cursory examination which the requirements of business have allowed us to take of its contents, we feel warranted to say, that the present No. fully sustains the character promised for it at the outset.

Indeed it is replete throughout with literary matter of a high order of merit, and appears in all respects well worthy of the liberal patronage which we are pleased to learn is accorded to it.

The first article entitled "The Great Failure," is evidently the work of a master mind, whether we regard either its literary merit or the financial views of its author. The article entitled "The Kansas Usurpation" is ably written, and gives us in a few pages, and as if condensed in a nut shell, the sum and substance of this important and extremely interesting question, which has now for several years filled so large a space in our public prints and in the popular mind. Judging of the other articles, by the character of the two preceding, which we have only had time to read in course, we doubt not they will found to contain matter of great merit well adapted to the various and erroring tastes of the reading public.

Taxation and Representation.

Mrs. Lucy Stone Blackwell—whom our city readers will many of them vividly and pleasantly remember as one of the most eloquent of women—had a portion of her household furniture sold at auction the other day, for taxes, by the Sheriff of Essex county, New Jersey, where she resides.

It seems that "Lucy Stone" (as she is still familiarly called, in spite of her married name) who is a staunch advocate of Women's Rights, holds also to that old Revolutionary heresy, that "taxation and representation should go together." And as, in her estimation, the women-folks are allowed to have no representatives in the Legislature, so neither can they, on any reasonable and just grounds, be required to pay taxes on their property. Supporting her premises to be correct, this position does not seem to be so very much absurd, after all.

But Lucy Stone is somewhat radical in her sentiments, and she goes still further—holding strenuously to the monstrous political dogma set forth by one Thomas Jefferson, that governments "derive their just power from the consent of the governed,"—wherefore she claims the right of suffrage, as just as clearly belonging to women as to men. And why should she not? The men who deny the right of suffrage to women had better read the Declaration of Independence.

Well, they don't allow women-folks to vote now-a-days, "down in the Jersey," though they formerly did; yet the Jersey-men like many other very good sort of people, seem to think it perfectly right to rejoice of the better sex, that they should obey laws, in the enactment of which, that sex had no shadow of participation—including the payment of taxes on any real or personal estate they may happen to own, though they are not permitted to have any voice in the appropriation of the money thus levied.

To these views of the rights and duties of women, Lucy Stone most decidedly objects, as absurd, unreasonable, and oppressive; and accordingly she wholly refuses to pay taxes on her property, so long as she is denied the right of suffrage and of representation. But, the laws of the sovereign State of New Jersey are imperative—the government wants money—the taxes must be paid—so the Sheriff of Essex county coolly proceeds to levy on Lucy's goods and chattels, and sells them at auction to the highest bidder, so as to raise the amount set down against her name in the tax list.

It is a chance if the people of New Jersey and of some other States do not hear from Luck Stone Blackwell on this subject.

"Over a thousand letters were dropped into the New Haven Post Office last year, which could not be forwarded for want of pre-payment."

Then there were doubtless very many cases of wrong, heart-ache, hardship, and inconvenience to somebody, resulting from the detention of those numerous letters.

It is a booby regulation of the Post Office department, which wholly prohibits the forwarding of unpaid letters. All letters deposited for the mails should be forwarded, on some terms—say a price and a half, or double price, for those not pre-paid. Who would be harmed by such a rule? Nobody. Who would be benefited? Multitudes.

The prepayment of a most important letter is sometimes overlooked or forgotten, in the hurry of business, or amid the depressing cares of life—even by those whose habitual rule it is, to pre-pay. Sometimes it contains a message of golden and unexpected happiness, anon a call for aid by the despairing of the perishing—or perchance the mournful tidings of mortality.

And the writer, having mailed the misadvised and impatiently for the glad or sad reply—waits, watches, and hopes in vain! The letter supposed to have been sent, has remained unforwarded—and all through a stupid regulation of the department, which forbids the sending through the mails of an unpaid letter!

Shame on the imbecility that ordains and sustains such a regulation! Let us have a reform.
